WHO TO WATCH

A Grade: University vs Baldivis

University and Baldivis couldn't be split across the season, each finishing with ten wins and conceding just three. Their only meeting went the way of University, but Baldivis has proven their strength by making the A Grade decider in their debut season. Baldivis boasts State representatives in Kelsey Timms, a proven forward threat, Chloe Colegate, the reliable anchor in defence, and versatile game-changer Sabreena McKinnon. University, meanwhile, will lean on the influence of ruck star Tayla Hepburn, who has transitioned impressively from basketball, defensive leader Rebecca Lyons, and contested ball winner Eloise Massey, who has the chance to join her father as a premiership player. With mutual respect between the clubs, this Grand Final has all the makings of a classic.

A Reserves: North Fremantle vs University

North Fremantle have been the benchmark all season, storming through undefeated, while University rallied from fourth place to hit their stride at the right time. When these sides last met, North Fremantle held on for a narrow win, but University's form across finals has been formidable. North Fremantle will turn to captain Taylor Bresland, dominant ruck Linda Armannsson, and the reliable Carissa Wright to drive their chances, while University will look to captain Zara Cavalot, tough competitor Jemma Burnage and explosive runner Carla Puca to make an impact. With both teams brimming with talent, the contest is set to be one of the weekend's tightest.

B Grade: Trinity Aquinas vs Hamersley Carine

Trinity Aquinas enters the Grand Final undefeated and with a reputation for strong culture and cohesion, while Hamersley Carine has been one of the season's great success stories, building two women's teams and surging into the decider with selfless team-first football. Trinity Aquinas coach Daniel Cripps points to the leadership of midfielder Nadia Pisano, whose State Game experience has lifted her to another level, the goal sense of Abbey Waddell fresh from a four-goal performance, and the speed and scoring of leading forward Jess Schleicher. Hamersley Carine may not single out stars, but their relentless pressure and collective effort has been the hallmark of their rise, and their united approach could cause an upset against the undefeated ladder leaders.

C1 Grade: Kelmscott vs Ocean Ridge

Kelmscott's remarkable run of success continues, with the Bulldogs reaching a fifth straight Grand Final and chasing a fourth premiership since 2021. Standing in their way is

Ocean Ridge, who overcame a tough 2024 to rebound with resilience, toughness and unity this year. Kelmscott's charge will be led by the strength of full back Akeria Collard, the influence of ruck Mahalia Rukuata, and the goal-scoring prowess of Summer Yarran. For Ocean Ridge, midfielder Kayleigh Whitehead's work rate will be vital, while Elissa Price's explosive speed across half-forward and Taylor Evans' toughness and leadership will drive their chances. It is a clash of a dynasty club against a challenger with nothing to lose.

C2 Grade: Ballajura vs Swan Valley

Ballajura has swept all before them, carrying a two-year undefeated streak across two divisions into the C2 Grand Final. But Swan Valley, who finished second on the ladder, have proven they can push the favourites, with their most recent clash decided by just a goal. Ballajura will again look to the attacking firepower of forwards Larah Harris and Lola Hill, supported by midfield engine room players Nyra Anderson and Annelise Hill. Swan Valley brings plenty of quality of their own, led by former WAFLW premiership player Lauren "Skinny" Osborne, two-time club best and fairest Hannah Stephens, and classy midfielder-forward Chanel "Jetts" Jetta. Expect a high-intensity contest as the underdogs chase a famous upset.

C3 Grade: Bayswater vs Kingsway

Bayswater has finally been rewarded for eight years of persistence, storming through an undefeated season to reach their first women's Grand Final. Kingsway, who finished just behind them, are determined to spoil the party after a strong preliminary final performance. Bayswater's success has been built on the dash of half-back Lilliya Lwoy, the contested ball-winning ability of Hayley Crute, and the scoring threat of forward Sophia Bishop. Kingsway, meanwhile, will pin their hopes on Abbey Partridge's fearless defensive play and piercing kicking, Tiarne Barnett's intercept marking and rebounding drive, and Melisha Hardy's goal-scoring instincts. With both clubs chasing history, this matchup promises fireworks.

C4 Grade: Manning vs Ellenbrook

The C4 decider is a rematch steeped in rivalry, with Manning and Ellenbrook having split their meetings across the season before earning their place in the big dance. Manning's rise has been fuelled by their strong culture and rapid growth as a team, led by standout ruck Paige Walley, versatile midfielder-forward Liv Ferrante, and the leadership and game sense of Amber Goodwin-Wissink. Ellenbrook, who finished atop the ladder, showed their firepower in a commanding preliminary final win and will look to midfielder Tamia Mippy's speed and marking ability, the toughness of Shaan Mitchell, and the booming kick of leading goal scorer Courtney West to get them over the line. With both clubs boasting momentum, this Grand Final could be one of the day's most dramatic.
